K20 Conference Headphones

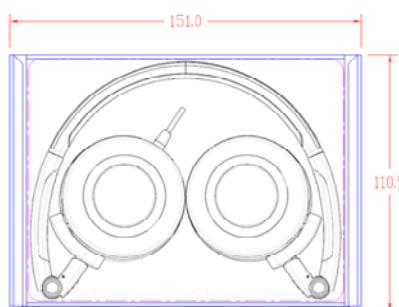

The K20s are lightweight and extremely comfortable to wear stereo headphones.

Cleanable plastic ear cups enable the use with or without foam ear pads. A single-sided cable makes these conference headphones perfect for their application.

With their replaceable foam ear pads the K20s comply with all hygienic standards, which makes them the ideal choice for applications like language schools, conferencing, courtrooms and similar.

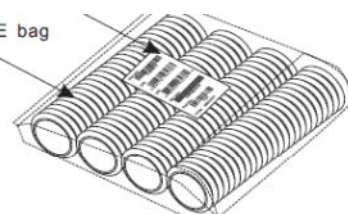

The headphones are foldable for easy storage.

Ear pads can be replaced fast and easily and are available in packs of 100 units.
